

THE EVENT PRODUCTION SHOW IS FOR EVERY EVENT

Every year thousands of organisers visit EPS looking for innovations to bring the latest wow factors to their events. Renowned for the vast array of specialist suppliers at the show, trade visitors and buyers attend to discover solutions to their event challenges.

All creative, unique, and practical, our exhibitors return to EPS year-after-year due to the quality of the visitors, and for the business opportunities that this facilitates.

TESTIMONIALS:

I came away from the exhibition felling positive that I had connected with the companies and sectors that I was trying to reach.

(PAUL GORRIE, SALES & MARKETING MANAGER, ARTEM)

The Event Production Show should sit firmly in the 'must-attend' section of any professional event organiser's calendar! The show presents a range of opportunities to source new suppliers, engage with existing ones and network with people from across the industry.

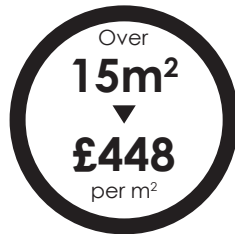

(CRAIG MATHIE, MANAGING DIRECTOR, BOURNEMOUTH 75 FESTIVAL)

A first-rate, must-attend show for anyone in the festival business. The vendors were spot-on, the panels terrific and the events and networking amazing. I loved it!

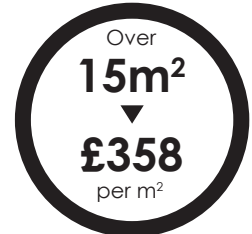

(LAURIE KIRBY, CO-FOUNDER, FEST FORUMS)
